

North Central Region Staff College

26-31 December, Kansas City, MO

We're going to Kansas City, Kansas City here we come!

Join a great group of CAP members in Kansas City for this year's North Central Region Staff College, 26-31 December. We will be visiting the World War I monument and museum, eating BBQ, and learning from great instructors including Brigadier General James Mackey, USAF; Col Regena Aye, CAP, NCR Commander; Col John O'Neill, CAP, MO Wing CC; Col Erica Williams, CAP, NCR PD Officer; CMSgt Bob Dandridge, CAP; SMSgt Mike Mudry, CAP; and many others.

The facility in Kansas City is the Courtyard by Marriott at KCI. What a great opportunity to bring the spouse to take advantage of post-holiday bargains at the near by Zona Rosa shopping district, with a free shuttle from the hotel. Family members are also welcome to go with us to the WWI museum, and enjoy KC BBQ for lunch on the way (at their own expense, $14 plus lunch). There are also many other activities spouses and family can do while you are in the staff college. Costs for the rooms are $59, or $69 with breakfast for 2, per night! <http://www.marriott.com/hotels/travel/mcica-courtyard-kansas-city-airport/> Contact the hotel direct for reservations, tell them you are with the Civil Air Patrol.

To register, please contact the event director, Maj. Austin Worcester, via email at

Austin.Worcester@mowgcap.org

Cost for the event is $100 per person. This includes 1 dinner and 1 lunch, plus museum admission, polo, snacks and a couple other surprises. Sessions will begin at 13:00 on 26 Dec, most nights will go to 18:00, one night probably until 22:00. The hotel will pick up passengers from MCI for those flying in, for those driving, the hotel is 1 block off I-29, 12 miles north of downtown Kansas City!

See you there!
